POLITICAL ADVOCACY RETAINER AGREEMENT

April 4, 2014

This Agreement is made between The Government of the Republic of Ghana (The Government) and JWI, L.L.C. doing business as Jefferson Waterman International (JWI). Each entity may be referred to as Party, and both entities may be referred to as Parties.

The Government and JWI have agreed that JWI shall render various professional, strategic counsel, and public relations services to assist the Government in maximizing the benefits received from its many accomplishments and in improving its relationship with the Government of the United States. This scope of work shall be the subject of sustained dialogue between the Parties, and it will evolve as circumstances dictate, with the understanding that any significant additions may require amendments to this Agreement.

The term of the Agreement is for a 12 month period commencing from the date of the signing of this Agreement by both parties.

The Government of Ghana will pay JWI a retainer fee of $500,000 USD for each twelve month term, payable in advance, upon the signing of this Agreement and at subsequent twelve month intervals if the Agreement is so confirmed at the time of review or renewal.

In connection with its representation, it is understood that JWI, in certain circumstances, may be required under applicable US law, to register its representations of The Government with the United States Government and that JWI will comply with all requirements of US law. In any event, JWI will not disclose without explicit authorization any information which The Government has made known to it in relation to activities undertaken under the present Agreement.

In witness where whereof, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representatives.
